Update on Q4 Reports

Submit Research Proposal

Investigators requiring data for publication should submit a research proposal to the Access & Publications (A&P) Program. A select number of novel, well-conceived, and hypothesis-driven proposals are approved for STS funding following a highly competitive biannual review process. Investigative teams will work closely with the STS National Database data analytics center, where the data analyses will be performed. The next deadline to submit a research proposal for Intermacs data is May 1, 2020.
